Personal Professional Development Policy

Aim of this policy

Brook Learning Trust is committed to the development of its employees and to support those who wish to study for a professional or educational qualification relevant to the Trust's vision for education.

Type of training covered by this policy

This policy covers training requested by a staff member for their own personal development which has relevance to but is not a direct requirement of their current role. It does not cover training stipulated by the Principal in order for a member of staff to carry out their current role or a newly adopted responsibility.

Application criteria

For any course or programme of study to be eligible for support they must meet the following criteria:

- Lead to a recognised and certified qualification, membership of a professional body, achievement of an industry recognised qualification
- Be at a standard where there is reasonable expectation that the individual will achieve success
- Be deemed relevant to an individual's current / future position within the Trust
- Be relevant to an area identified for development in the academy or trust improvement plan

Application Process

Staff members are required to complete the application form prior to any funding being granted. The Principal has discretion to fund any proportion of course fees which they deem to be appropriate, within the confines of the available budget for training, and after giving due regard to fairness and equity in the treatment of applications. The Principal's decision is final and will be communicated to the applicant using the template letter attached to this policy.

Additional Support

Successful applicants will be granted additional leave for examinations, and these dates should be clearly signposted in the application. All other responsibilities for studying time, and costs associated with travel and accommodation will be borne by the applicant.

Reimbursement of Costs

Should an individual leave the organisation during the course or within two years of completing the course, they will be required to repay the academy's contribution towards costs as follows through salary deductions during their notice period:

- During the course or within one year of course completion – 100% of academy's contribution
- Between one and two years of course completion – 50% of academy's contribution
